

WOMEN'S VOTING RIGHTS

Throughout the ages

Wednesday, March 11 | 6:15 p.m.

4 W 43rd Street | Social Hall

New York City, NY 10036

Register: bit.ly/UNA-CSW

Join the United Nations Association of the USA (UNA-USA) for a panel discussion on the intergenerational history of women's voting rights in America. Panelists will highlight the impact of the Suffrage movement, key women's rights activists, and the 15th and 19th Amendments of the U.S. Constitution. Additionally, the panel will discuss both the history of the women's voting rights movement and also speak to the current and future engagement of women in the political process in America.
